INFORMATION ABOUT CLIENTS

There were 113 entries into the shelter in 2011. However three of the women had come back for the same reason multiple times within the same year. Therefore in the statistics below the demographics of the 110 individual women who received our services are highlighted. The statistics below are based on information shared by the clients.

1. Reasons for seeking shelter

Domestic violence was the main reason women sought shelter. 75 women (68.2%) sought shelter as a result of domestic violence. WAO also offered shelter to women who faced other problems and were in need of a temporary place to stay. In the table below, “others” includes cases pending investigation by UNHCR, an ex-resident who is waiting for her children to be sent to a children’s home and a woman who needed accommodation during a court case.

Reasons for seeking shelter	Number	Percentage	Number in 2010
Domestic violence	75	68.2	88
Single and pregnant	6	5.5	20
Rape	3	2.7	4
Migrant domestic worker abuse	9	8.2	2
Sexual harassment	1	0.9	2
Trafficked	1	0.9	1
No place to stay	5	4.5	2
Financial problems	1	0.9	-
Others	9	8.2	6
Total	110	100	125

2. Expectations of the clients (multiple answers)

Most clients sought protection and temporary housing at the shelter. 88.2% of the clients sought protection from their husbands, partners, boyfriends, family members or employers, while 75.5% came to WAO for temporary housing. In the table below, “others” includes single pregnant women who wished to hide their pregnancy from their families and/or society, clients who stayed for a night or two due to court cases and clients who needed time and space to cool off from the stressors in their life.

Expectations of the clients	Number	Percentage
Seeking protection	97	88.2
Wanting legal assistance	37	33.6
Temporary housing	83	75.5
Assistance for returning to home country	14	12.7
Others	9	8.2

3. Number of children

Out of the 110 women who stayed at the Refuge, 82 had children. Out of the 82 women who had children, 22 did not bring any of their children with them, while others did not bring all their children. In total, 122 children stayed at the Refuge (compared to 100 in 2010). Table (a) below shows the breakdown of the number of children each woman had, and Table (b) shows the breakdown of the number of children who stayed at the Refuge with each woman.

Table (a)

Number of children per woman	Number of women
None	28
1 child	19
2 children	32
3 children	15

15. Services provided by WAO

Besides providing counselling and shelter to the residents, WAO also provided other services to the clients to meet their individual needs. These services included providing information on financial matters, help acquiring visas, Social Visit Passes, and permanent residency, and networking with other agencies.

In all the tables in this section below, the number of women who had particular knowledge by the time they had left WAO also includes the women who already had this knowledge before they came to WAO.

15.1 Knowledge of the dynamics of domestic violence and police procedures

Clients are provided with help to understand the dynamics of domestic violence, how to lodge a police report and how to apply for an Interim Protection Order (IPO). The social workers discuss this information not only with domestic violence survivors, but also with other residents.

Seventy three residents had developed an understanding of the dynamics of domestic violence and how to deal with it by the time they left WAO. For the women who decided to return to abusive situations, the information they received at WAO will be vital as they are now more aware of their options.

Sixty nine women understood how to lodge police reports by the time they left WAO. WAO social workers taught them how to write the reports and what the process is after lodging the police reports.

Only 20 residents knew about IPOs before they came to WAO. Many residents were not informed about IPOs by the police even though they had lodged police reports many times before. 65 women understood how to apply for an IPO by the time they left WAO.

Knowledge	Number of residents who had acquired this knowledge before coming to WAO	Number of residents who had the knowledge upon leaving WAO
Dynamics of domestic violence	21	73
How to lodge police reports	35	69
How to apply for IPO	20	65

15.2 Knowledge of health issues

WAO also helps residents understand health issues, such as family planning methods, how to conduct breast self-examination and HIV/AIDS.

Knowledge	Number of residents who had acquired this knowledge before coming to WAO	Number of residents who had the knowledge upon leaving WAO
Contraceptive methods	42	72
How to do a breast self-examination	31	68
HIV/AIDS	49	72

15.3 Knowledge of legal procedures

WAO also helps residents understand legal procedures, such as the marriage tribunal, divorce, custody, and maintenance. Although some residents did not intend to get a divorce, the social workers would provide the residents with the information so that they would be aware of their options.

Knowledge	Number of residents who had acquired this knowledge before coming to WAO	Number of residents who had the knowledge upon leaving WAO
Marriage Tribunal	10	29
Divorce procedures	12	39
Child custody procedures	15	43
Maintenance procedures	10	41

15.4 Knowledge of financial matters

This component relates to financial matters, including managing a budget. In some cases where residents had incurred a loan primarily due to their husbands' or partners' financial problems, the social workers, together with Legal Aid Centre students, also provided residents with the appropriate information and resources, including referring them to AKPK (Agensi Kaunseling dan Pengurusan Kredit) for financial counselling. WAO also teaches residents how to negotiate with their employers for their wages, especially in cases where employers refuse to pay.

Knowledge	Number of residents who had acquired this knowledge before coming to WAO	Number of residents who had the knowledge upon leaving WAO
Budgeting	13	42
Loans / debts / bankruptcy	8	22
Negotiating with employers about salary / wages	17	27

15.5 Knowledge of visas, Social Visit Passes and permanent residency

WAO provided non-Malaysian residents with information about Social Visit Passes and on applying for permanent residency (PR), and discussed issues concerning overstaying visas. Most of the non-Malaysians were referred to us by UNHCR and therefore had refugee status in Malaysia. A few others wanted to return to their home countries.

Knowledge	Number of residents who had acquired this knowledge before coming to WAO	Number of residents who had the knowledge upon leaving WAO
Social Visit Pass	6	6
Applying Permanent Residency	1	3
Issues related to overstaying visas	9	9

15.6 Networking with other agencies

WAO also provided the residents with information about different agencies which would be able to assist them. In some cases, WAO linked them with the officers from these agencies for direct assistance.

Knowledge	Number of residents who had acquired this knowledge before coming to WAO	Number of residents who had the knowledge upon leaving WAO
Jabatan Pendaftaran Negara procedures (for identity cards / birth certificates /marriage certificates)	20	38
